Re: CC Docket #99-68

To Whom It May Concern:

I am extremely OPPOSED to the FCC Docket #99-68 with regards to applying a per minute charge for internet online time. This is ludicrous. I feel that we pay enough money to our Online services to get access to the internet. I believe this is just another government ploy to "squeeze" more MONEY out of us Americans. The government already has its hands in too much as it is. Why must the Government control everything?

If you impose this charge, the online companies will be forced to pass the charges along to US, therefore creating huge losses on these companies as the American public just isn't going to pay these fees. You will start the "domino" effect beginning with the Online companies. Stocks will dive & more people will lose money, thus creating an unstable economy.

Please think before you leap into this. Let it be as it is & make everyone happy. The FCC has enough on its plate. Stick to getting "TRASHY" DJs off the airwaves & cleaning up America airwaves. Now, that is much more constructive, don't you think ?

Thank you for hearing me out.
